NCAA COMPLIANCE

The importance of following all NCAA rules and regulations is imperative to maintaining the integrity of Wofford College and intercollegiate athletics. We ask all who are associated with the institutions athletics programs to help the College protect the spirit of competition, the athletics eligibility of our student-athletes and the reputation of the College by adhering to the rules and regulations of the NCAA and by contacting the Compliance Office or the NCAA with all questions. If you have any questions about NCAA rules, please contact Elizabeth Rabb at (864) 597-4090, the Wofford website at woffordterriers.com and click on 'Compliance,' or the NCAA at www.ncaa.org.

What is a Representative of Athletics Interests (Booster/Donor)?

All alumni, friends, and employees of the College are categorized as 'representatives of athletics interest.' The NCAA stipulates that once an individual has been identified as a 'representative' or "booster/donor" he/she retains this status forever even if the individual is no longer associated with the athletics program. Furthermore the NCAA states that it is possible for a person to be a representative of more than one institution at the same time. A representative of athletics interest may not:

- Contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an effort to evaluate a prospect
- Visit the prospect's institution to pick up film or transcripts
- Contact a prospect, his/her parents, legal guardians or spouse on or off campus
- Contact a prospect by telephone or letter
- Make special arrangements to entertain a recruit
- Provide extra benefits to a prospect, student-athlete or the parents, family and/or guardians of the prospects or student-athletes

REMEMBER THE #1 RULE: 'Ask Before You Act!'

Wofford College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, national origin, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation or any legally protected status.

WOFFORD COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Wofford's mission is to provide superior liberal arts education that prepares its students for extraordinary and positive contributions to society. The focus of Wofford's mission is upon fostering commitment to excellence in character, performance, leadership, service to others and life-long learning.

THE WORLD AT WOFFORD

Wofford College, established in 1854, is a four-year, independent, residential liberal arts college located in Spartanburg, S.C. It offers a distinctive program with 25 major fields of study to a student body of 1,650 undergraduates.

Nationally known for the strength of its academic program, outstanding faculty, study abroad participation and successful graduates, Wofford ranks well in U.S. News & World Report, The Princeton Review, The Fiske Guide to College, Kiplinger's Personal Finance and the Open Doors Report on International Education Exchange, an organization that ranks Wofford #4 in the nation for study abroad participation.

Wofford has produced six Rhodes Scholars and is home to one of the nation's 283 Phi Beta Kappa chapters.

A leader in offering high-impact learning opportunities to students, Wofford encourages students to take advantage of all that Wofford, and through it the world, has to offer.

These opportunities include internships with scientific, corporate and non-profit organizations across the globe, undergraduate research opportunities, service-learning in the local community, international study abroad programming and a thriving host of co-curricular opportunities on campus.

One of those co-curricular offerings is the R. Michael James Fund, a student-managed and operated investment organization. The Space in the Mungo Center also prepares students for life after Wofford by offering professional development, career services and much more.

Student and residence life on campus include exciting Division I NCAA athletics, opportunities to participate in one of the college's Greek-letter fraternities or sororities, competitive intramurals, a diverse selection of clubs, student publications and a housing plan that helps students progress from first year through fourth in a close-knit community that builds independence. The residence life experience culminates in a final year in

The Village, beautiful, Charlestonian-style apartments designed to help transition students from college student to successful graduate.

Thanks to the generosity of alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson '59, construction on Wofford's Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts and the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium to house new basketball and volleyball arenas began in 2016, with completion dates in 2017. In addition, the new Greek Village was completed in the spring of 2016.

Wofford's entire 175-acre campus is a national arboretum, named the Roger Milliken Arboretum at Wofford College in honor of the late longtime trustee and benefactor.

Wofford offers distinctive learning opportunities that set it apart from other liberal arts colleges. A few of those high-impact educational experiences include:

The Interim, a January term that encourages students and faculty to explore new interests both on and off campus. A small sampling of on-campus programs include: Animal Cognition and Rat Basketball, Personal Finance, and Riding and Researching the Horse. Travel/study projects will take students to Australia, Cuba, China, Ireland, Germany, Japan and other sites around the world. Students also complete internships both locally and around the globe.

The Bonner Scholar program, a service-learning scholarship program that places deserving students in volunteer positions throughout the community.

The Space in the Mungo Center, a place where students can build upon their liberal arts education by adding professional skills desired by employers and graduate schools. The Space includes The Space to: Prepare (career services and professional development training); The Space to: Impact (a four-year scholarship program that empowers students to impact the world); The Space to: Launch (entrepreneurship support and competitions); The Space to: Consult (hands-on research, writing and problem-solving training within a consulting framework); and The Space to: Explore (in-depth global study).

Environmental Studies provides a creative and supportive learning environment that helps students pursue their goals in the field of sustainability. It operates both on Wofford's campus and at the college's Goodall Environmental Studies Center at Glendale, S.C. The property where the center is located borders 19 acres of protected green space along Lawson's Fork Creek.

Neuroscience, a program that allows students to examine the nervous system and its regulation of behavior through an experimental approach, is offered jointly by the Departments of Psychology and Biology.

Computational Science, a fast-growing interdisciplinary field that is at the intersection of the sciences, computer science and mathematics, involves learning to store, retrieve, process and visualize massive amounts of information in web-accessed databases.

The Novel Experience, a first-year reading and writing program that offers an introduction to the academic rigors of Wofford while familiarizing students with the Spartanburg community.

The Creative Writing Concentration, a program led by outstanding published faculty authors that provides additional opportunities for students to hone their creative writing skills, earn coveted prizes and become published writers. The Wofford Writers Series brings published writers to campus to augment the Creative Writing Concentration.

The Presidential International Scholar program offers an opportunity for an outstanding, intellectually gifted student to visit developing countries researching a specific academic area of interest. The student then returns to campus to share his or her experiences.

Presidential Seminar, a weekly seminar for outstanding seniors hosted by Wofford President Nayef H. Samhat. Seminar participants explore interdisciplinary subjects of current significance. The college now has a similar program for juniors.

Liberty Fellowship is a two-year leadership experience for young citizens of South Carolina with exemplary promise for societal achievement. The Liberty Fellowship is housed at the college and offered in partnership with South Carolina businessman Hayne Hipp and the Aspen Institute.

JERRY RICHARDSON INDOOR STADIUM

Wofford announced on Nov. 17, 2014, its plans to build the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium to house a new basketball/volleyball arena, locker rooms and other facilities. The facility will be adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium, where the Terriers play football. Construction on the facility began in the fall of 2015 with the opening date slated for September 2017.

Wofford alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson '59 provided the gift to fund the 110,000-square-foot facility that will include a 3,400-seat basketball arena and a 500-seat volleyball competition venue.

The Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium will serve as the home for women's basketball, men's basketball and volleyball and have a seating capacity for non-athletics functions, such as commencement and concerts, of 4,500. It will include home and visitor lockers for multiple sports, a state-of-the-art training room, coaches' offices and locker rooms and team meeting rooms. Other features include a video board and ribbon boards, plus designated areas specifically designed for students, fans, children and donors. Four open-air suites also are planned.

ROSALIND SALLENGER RICHARDSON CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Wofford alumnus and Carolina Panthers founder and owner Jerry Richardson and his wife, Rosalind Richardson, helped turn the first shovels of dirt on May 12, 2015, to begin construction of the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts at Wofford College during a groundbreaking ceremony.

The 67,000-square-foot facility will house the college's theatre and visual arts programs and will include a 300-seat performance hall along with a museum and a student gallery. It will feature two custom-made glass sculptures by internationally renowned artist Dale Chihuly. The Center for the Arts will feature a material pallet of masonry, stucco and copper. Large areas of glass will connect the interior to the outdoors, filling art studios with natural light and creating transparency and openness between spaces and across an outdoor sculpture garden. Richardson, a 1959 Wofford graduate and member of the college's board of trustees, provided the gift for the center in honor of his wife's commitment and dedication to the arts.

GREEK VILLAGE

Greek life at Wofford College has a long and vibrant history, one steeped in tradition, philanthropy, fellowship, scholarship, leadership, and the ideals of brotherhood and sisterhood. Wofford's original fraternity houses were constructed in the mid-1950s and were filled with fond memories. They were replaced in the spring of 2016 with new, more serviceable spaces for North-American National Interfraternity Conference organizations and add options for National Panhellenic Conference and National Pan-Hellenic Council organizations. The Greek Village is located across Evins Street from the main portion of campus.

Wofford alumni live in all 50 states and in more than 35 foreign countries. They include six Rhodes Scholars, six Truman Scholars and two Barry M. Goldwater Scholars.

Of 16,707 living alumni, 3,218 are in senior management of corporations or organizations, 1,302 practice medicine, dentistry or other health care professions, and 827 are attorneys or judges.

Dating back to 1919 when Frank Ellerbee played baseball for the Washington Senators, Wofford alumni have made an impact in professional sports. From basketball to baseball to football, golf and soccer, Wofford alumni are making their marks in professional league around the globe.

William McGirt has earned over $8 million on the PGA Tour since earning his card in 2011. He won the 2016 Memorial Tournament and earned an invitation to the 2017 Masters.

In basketball, Mike Lenzly was a member of the 2012 Great Britain Olympic Team that competed in the London Games. Additional Terriers who have played overseas in the last five years include Noah Dahlman, Drew Gibson, Junior Salters, Howard Wilkerson, Brad Loesing, Drew Crowell, Lee Skinner, Karl Cochran, Kevin Giltner, and Spencer Collins.

Wofford also has been well represented in minor league baseball. Brandon Waring, Michael Gilmartin, Alex Wilson, J.D. Osborne, Luke Leftwich, Will Stillman and Matt Milburn all were with teams in the last five seasons. John Cornely made his MLB debut with the Atlanta Braves in 2015.

Over the past seven years, Andy Strickland (Atlanta and Jacksonville), Tommy Irvin (Arizona), Pat Illig

(Detroit), Kasey Redfern (Jacksonville and San Diego), Alvin Scioneaux (San Diego) and Brenton Bersin (Carolina) have been in NFL training camps. Bersin has won back-to-back NFC South Championships and reached Super Bowl 50 in 2016. MR. RICHARDSON

Any tribute to the life and accomplishments of Jerry Richardson must include a strong emphasis on the word “teamwork.” Along every step of Richardson’s remarkable journey, he has relied on and been tremendously supported by a faithful group surrounding him, including family, coaches, teammates, business associates, and a close circle of personal friends for a lifetime. A large number of those connections are tied back to Wofford College, and for many years, Richardson has been quick to say that “without Wofford’s influence on my life, I would not have been able to accomplish what I have.”

Jerry Richardson was born in July 1936 in Spring Hope, N.C., as an only child to George Bertram Richardson and Mary Williams Richardson, but considers nearby Fayetteville as his hometown. He became a star athlete at Fayetteville High School, befriended six men who would be lifelong friends, and was coached and mentored by Bob Prevatte, a 1950 Wofford graduate, whose influence on young Richardson would be profound.

Upon graduating from Fayetteville High in 1954, Richardson accepted a $250 scholarship to Wofford College to play football, where his tireless work ethic and physical talent quickly caught the attention of Terrier coaches and fans. The three-time All-South Carolina, and two-time All-American, still holds school records for career touchdown receptions with 21, season touchdown receptions with 9, and most receiving yards in a game with 241.

As a Wofford student-athlete, Richardson was selected to membership in Blue Key National Honor Fraternity and Scabbard and Blade, was a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity and chaired the Interfraternity Council as well as being selected to Who’s Who in American Colleges and Universities. Richardson earned All-America honors and attracted enough attention from pro scouts to be drafted by the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League prior to his senior season at Wofford, at which time he was Terrier team captain. He moved successfully into the NFL, enjoying two seasons with the Colts. He caught a game clinching touchdown pass in the 1959 championship game in which the victorious

Colts became World Champions.

By that time, Richardson had married his college sweetheart, Rosalind Sallenger of Florence, SC, and they were beginning to start their family, which ultimately would comprise sons Jon and Mark, and daughter Ashley. He made the decision not to return to the Colts for the 1960 season, choosing instead to join forces and invest his NFL championship bonus check with his quarterback at Wofford, Charlie Bradshaw, who had signed an agreement to open in Spartanburg the first franchise of Hardee’s Food Systems. Their first Hardee’s franchise opened on Kennedy Street in Spartanburg in October 1961, and a new company they named Spartan Food Systems was born. Over time, Richardson and Bradshaw recruited into their company a significant number of Wofford friends, former teammates and coaches, building a legendary team driven to be highly successful.

Taking the company public in 1969, the team that Richardson and Bradshaw had formed was able to have their firm listed on the New York Stock Exchange before turning age 40, which had been an initial goal. The company grew into a Fortune 500 stalwart, with over 110,000 employees and interests in more than 2,500 restaurants and other holdings.

With their phenomenal success came opportunities to expand the company, so they acquired the Quincy’s steakhouse chain in 1977, before joining forces with TW Corporation, a spinoff from Trans World Airlines. Eventually, under Richardson’s leadership, this new company included Canteen Corporation and the Denny’s restaurant chain.

In 1993, a career-long dream on which Richardson had been actively working for seven years was realized when the investment team that he had put together was successful in earning the 29th franchise of the NFL—the Carolina Panthers, to be headquartered in Charlotte. Richardson became the first former NFL player to become an owner since George Halas of the Chicago Bears. Vital to Richardson’s dream was for the franchise to be truly regionally supported, and central to that goal was to have the team’s summer preseason training camp to be located on the campus of his alma mater, Wofford.

His service to Wofford has been never-ending. Currently, Richardson is in the middle of the third twelve-year term he has served on the Wofford Board of Trustees. He has been a major benefactor to every significant financial campaign at the college since graduating in 1959, and he and his family have established the most prestigious scholarships offered by the college, known as the Richardson Family Scholarships.

The recognitions that Richardson has earned are numerous, but would include the Order of the Palmetto and the Order of the Long Leaf Pine, which are the two highest civic recognitions that the states of South Carolina and North Carolina, respectively, can bestow. He is also the only individual ever to be inducted into both the Business and Athletic Halls of Fame for these two states.

THE RICHARDSON BUILDING

The home of the Wofford College Athletic Department is the Richardson Physical Activities Building. The facility includes offices for the administration, football, basketball and other sports on the second floor. Also included on the second floor is an aerobic dance room and weight room with machine and free weights along with a variety of cardio machines. Locker rooms for football, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer and a training room are located on the first floor.

Wofford alumnus and Carolina Panthers owner Jerry Richardson made a $1 million donation in 2008 that was used for enhancing the Richardson Building. Numerous improvements were made in the facility to ensure that it is one of the most advanced athletic facilities in the nation.

Enhancements to the Richardson Building include new paint and carpet in the entire facility. The coaching and administration suites were reconfigured to provide better reception areas. Football and men's basketball offices were outfitted with a new video system, including computers, editing software and large-screen monitors. This new system is similar to those being used by the NFL and NBA.

Inside the Harley Room, a new audio/video system was installed to handle the variety of events held in the room. New displays for academic honors, Southern Conference honors and the Hall of Fame are a part of the project. Additional murals and photos compliment the building and give it a fresh look.

In addition, the fitness facilities have been upgraded as well. Nearly $100,000 worth of new equipment was added to supplement the current selection of treadmills and elliptical machines. The cardio area features six flat panel televisions for viewing while working out. The fitness area is used by the entire student body at Wofford.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

THE JOE E. TAYLOR CENTER

Wofford alumnus and South Carolina Secretary of Commerce Joe Taylor donated $1 million for the renovation of the Curry Building into the Joe E. Taylor Athletic Center. The Taylor Center features a 7,000 square foot weight room and offices for athletic department staff. The building, located next to Gibbs Stadium, was completed in June of 2009.

The weight room facility is equipped with a total of 24 racks with built-in pull-up bars and nearly 25,000 pounds of plates, dumbbells and olympic weights. The 24 racks are divided, with twelve used with platforms and twelve used with benches. Additional equipment includes four pulldown machines, four low row machines, five power runners, six glute/ham machines, two decline ab machines, a leg press and exercise bike. Also included is a large area of Mondo track flooring, which is used with the step-up boxes, plyo boxes and hurdle sets in speed development.

The Taylor Center also provides offices for administration and numerous sports, including men's and women's soccer, baseball, men's and women's golf, volleyball, men's and women's tennis and cross country and track and field. A conference room and several work areas give the coaching staff much needed space.

MISSION STATEMENT

The aim of the Wofford College Strength and Conditioning Department is to allow every student-athlete the best training opportunity with proper instruction and program implementation to create progressive gains in strength, speed, fitness levels, mobility and body composition over the tenure of the athletic career. This will be achieved through a created culture consumed with hard work, discipline, commitment, and knowledge of the craft of training in a highly competitive environment.

THE PHILOSOPHY

The Strength and Conditioning Program consists of prescribed training based on sport specific demands with a great emphasis on properly executing movement patterns and training within the assigned threshold to optimize abilities and capabilities. Keys to this are:

- Evaluation and Assessment
- Individual Needs / Sport Specificity
- Weight Training Movements
- Running Prescription
- Plyometric Training
- Student-Athlete Health
- Recovery and Restoration
- Training Culture

The City's origins predate the Revolutionary War. Spartanburg was named for a unit of American Revolution forces called the "Spartan Rifles" who helped defeat the British at the Battle of Cowpens in 1781, under the leadership of General Daniel Morgan.

The town of Spartanburg was incorporated in 1831 and later as a city in 1880 by the 13 Original States and Tennessee. During this time Spartanburg was booming due in large part to the rapidly expanding textile industry.

In the 1870s, Spartanburg became a railroad "hub city," with mainline railroads extending from Magnolia Street depot in all directions, taking passengers and freight to Charleston, Augusta, Atlanta, Asheville, Charlotte and points beyond. As many as 90 trains per day could be seen and heard operating in Spartanburg during the golden age of the American railroad, 1900-20.

During the 1920s, Spartanburg built South Carolina's first municipal airport and claimed the state's first commercial radio station (WSPA). Its leadership in the state was reflected by the election of several residents as governor.

Thousands of U.S. soldiers bound for overseas service in World Wars I and II trained at camps in Spartanburg. The post headquarters for Camp Wadsworth (1917-19) was located at the present site of WestGate Mall, and the Camp Croft (1940-45) was located south of the city. Much of that military reservation has become Croft

State Park.

After World War II, Spartanburg made a concerted effort to promote its location at the junction of Interstates 85 and 26 to international business. One of the greatest successes of this campaign was the development of the BMW manufacturing center near the Greenville-Spartanburg Airport.

Spartanburg's downtown, which always has been anchored by the campuses of Wofford and Converse Colleges, has been undergoing a major revival since the mid-1990s. In addition to the corporate headquarters for Denny's, Advance America, QS-1 and several other companies, the city has acquired a magnificent public library, the Marriott Hotel at Renaissance Park and most recently, the Chapman Arts Center and the USC Upstate George Dean Johnson School of Business. The area surrounding Morgan Square gradually is redeveloping with a variety of interesting restaurants and urban apartment-style housing.

Throughout the 20th century, textile manufacturing companies formed the backbone of the Spartanburg economy. The most significant of these companies still in operation is internationally respected Milliken & Company.

Blessed by geography and climate as well as by energetic and well-educated citizenry, Spartanburg is emerging as one of the centers of a 21st century metroplex that extends along the South Carolina portion of the I-85 corridor.

HEAD COACH LYNZE ROOS

HEAD COACH - SECOND SEASON
BUTLER '01

Lynze Roos enters her second season as head coach of the Wofford volleyball team. She was named the seventh head coach of the program on July 8, 2015 after spending the previous nine seasons (2006-14) as the head coach at Lynn University.

In her first season, Roos guided the Terriers to 16 wins – the team's most since 2009 – and a sixth-place finish in the Southern Conference standings – the team's best in its 18 years in the conference. Wofford rolled off five consecutive victories for the first time since 2012, which included a perfect 4-0 record to win the JSU Gamecock Invitational. The Terriers earned 3-0 sweeps over defending Southern Conference Tournament champion Samford and defending regular season champion Furman. The 2015 campaign also witnessed Wofford come back from two sets down to win twice, something the Terriers had not accomplished once since 2009. Wofford put together an 8-2 record through a 10-game stretch in October and finished the season with a 6-3 (.667) record at home, its highest home winning percentage since going 10-4 (.714) in 1992.

Roos' first season also saw some great individual accomplishments. Setter Molly Mayo broke the program's single-season assists record with 1,334, surpassing Rhea DeJesus's previous mark of 1,332 from 2004. Senior libero Jessica Graham posted 605 digs – second-most in program history – and broke the school record for career digs by nearly 300, finishing with 1,921. Freshman Colleen Reilly etched her name in the record books in total blocks (123), block assists (107) and blocks per set (1.05), taking the No. 3 spot in both total blocks and blocks per set, while claiming a new single-season record in block assists. Outside hitter Bella Santoro posted 364 kills to enter Wofford's top-10 for a single season and middle Danni Densford hit .320 to record the second-highest attack percentage in program history. Densford's season also included a match in which she hit .846 (11-0-13) against Alcorn State, which went down as the highest single-match attack percentage in team history (min. 10 kills).

Roos left Lynn University as the most accomplished and winningest coach in program history. Prior to her arrival, Lynn's volleyball program had won only 89 games in 10 years with only one winning season. Roos transformed the program and left with a 164-119 overall mark, 66-78 record in Sunshine State Conference play, eight winning seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances in nine years.

Lynn had its breakout season in 2007, Roos' second year on the job. The Fighting Knights reached the postseason for the first time in program history, tying what was then the program record with 22 wins. Lynn advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA South Region Tournament with a 3-1 victory over Eckerd before falling 3-2 to top-seeded and second-ranked defending national champions, Tampa, in five sets.

The Blue & White would go on to claim 20 wins in each of the next three seasons while making trips to the NCAA Tournament along the way. Roos' 2008 squad set a record for wins in a season with 24 while the 2010 team, the last to qualify for the postseason, tallied a program-best 11 victories in SSC competition. Roos also owns 66 of the school's 81 conference wins.

Roos has also demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence. For eight straight seasons, the Lynn volleyball team earned American Volleyball Coaches Association Team Academic Award. In 2013-14, the volleyball team posted the highest team GPA out of Lynn's 14 athletic teams with a 3.81 cumulative grade point average.

Prior to Lynn, Roos served as the assistant volleyball coach on the staff of fellow Southern Conference member Samford University for two years. She arrived at Samford after a three-year tenure with Pike High School in Indianapolis, Indiana. At Pike, she was the head volleyball coach and led her team to three top-four finishes in the conference, as well as a sectional final. She also worked with the Pike Youth League, the Pike Fire Volleyball Club, and the Indy Select Volleyball Club from 2001-04 and started the Central Indiana Summer Volleyball League for high school programs.

As a collegian, Roos was an exemplary student-athlete. While an undergraduate student at Butler University, she was named to the dean's list for eight consecutive semesters, was a four-time NCAA District 12 All-Academic Team member and was a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Board. Roos was named the 2001 Future Educator of the Year by the Butler Secondary Education Department and was selected as one of Butler's Top 100 Seniors.

On the court, Roos was equally impressive. As a freshman, Roos was named to the Midwestern Collegiate Conference All-Newcomer Team. She was also named a second-team all-conference performer in 1998 and 2000 and was picked to the MCC All-Tournament Team in 2000. She ended her playing career in Butler's top 10 in five categories and was named to Butler's Top 25 players in the first 25 years of the program.

Roos graduated from Butler University in 2001 as a double-major in English and education. She married Matt Roos on December 18, 2004. The couple has two children, a son, Loren, and a daughter, Lyle.

JORDAN LAY

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH - FIRST SEASON
BUTLER '11

Jordan Lay is in his first season as associate head coach of the Wofford volleyball program. He was hired on May 16, 2016, and most recently served as head coach at NCAA Div. II West Alabama from 2013-15.

Lay serves as Wofford volleyball's recruiting coordinator and will work primarily on the court with middles and right sides. He is also in charge of the team's video breakdown and scouting.

"I am thrilled to become a Terrier," said Lay, who coached against Roos during the 2013 and 2014 seasons when Roos was at the head of the Lynn University program. "Coach Roos and the entire Wofford family have been extremely inviting and helpful throughout this process. I believe in what Wofford is doing as a school and as an athletic department. I couldn't be happier to begin this new journey and am excited to get to work recruiting, training and building Wofford volleyball into a SoCon power."

Lay instilled passion, unity and pride in a West Alabama program that went 3-13 in Gulf South Conference play the year before he took over. He coached the Tigers to five conference victories in 2013, seven in 2014 and a respectable 9-11 mark this past season. The team's nine conference wins marked its most since 2011.

"Adding Jordan as associate head coach is a turning point for Terrier volleyball," Roos stated. "He brings a new level of enthusiasm and experience. From the first time I coached against Jordan, his passion was obvious and his knowledge was impressive. He works hard to inspire and motivate his players, and I'm thrilled to have the opportunity to work side-by-side as Wofford volleyball keeps improving."

Prior to West Alabama, Lay was the head coach for one season at NCAA Div. III Belhaven University. In that one year, he was named 2012 Southern State Athletic Conference Coach of the Year after guiding the Blazers to a 27-9 regular season record and 9-5 mark in conference play. Combined with a pair of wins in the SSAC Tournament, Lay's team set the Belhaven record for victories in a season with 29. Lay was also with the program in 2011 as an assistant coach.

Additionally, Lay served as an assistant coach with Team Indiana Volleyball Club and at Park Tudor High School in Indianapolis before relocating to Belhaven. He was also the head coach of the Butler University women's volleyball club team that won the Vanderbilt Invitational in 2010.

A native of Indianapolis, Ind., Lay earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Butler in 2011.

Schinzing played four years as a setter at Harding University, and earned several all-conference and tournament honors, including ending the 2012 season with a national ranking of 17th among all NCAA Division II schools for assists per set. She led her team to an undefeated season and a conference championship, while being named to the all-conference team in addition to being named team captain her sophomore through senior years.

Schinzing has played organized volleyball since she was 13, starting on OVA's elite teams. She lettered all four years of high school at The First Academy and Olympia High School in Orlando, FL. She was named captain her junior and senior years at Olympia, awarded MVP both years and named to the All-Metro First and Second Teams, also earned MVP at the Florida State and UCF Elite Camps. On the beach circuit, she qualified and earned second place at the 2009 AAU National Beach Volleyball Tournament in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Complimenting her volleyball background, Amber brings vast experience in strength and conditioning to the Terrier program. She has participated in an internship with Titus Sports Academy working with athletes and their training programs at the collegiate and professional levels. She is a certified personal trainer and yoga instructor. Also, she is a nationally certified EMT, and earned a degree in Exercise Science from Harding University and postgraduate work in chemistry.

Wofford got Georgia's full attention on Friday night's season opener. After dropping the first set, the Terriers took a 7-6 lead in set two and never looked back, winning 25-20 to go to the intermission tied at a set apiece.

The upset was not in the cards. UGA controlled the third and held off the Terriers in a hard-fought fourth for the win on day one of the Benson Hospitality Invitational.

"I liked the way we battled, but our mentality needs to get tougher – it's something I hope to bring to this program," said Lynze Roos after her Wofford head coaching debut. "If we can be mentally tough and battle through every high and low of the match, we can surprise some people."

In her first collegiate match, Colleen Reilly led Wofford's attack with eight kills. However, her .182 attack percentage was also the team's best, as the Terriers finished at .033 (30-26-123). Meanwhile, the Bulldogs hit .302 (44-12-106) to pull away.

Alex Holland had seven kills while Lauren Miller – also in her collegiate debut – totaled six. The Terriers had seven aces, six of which contributed to the second-set victory, while the Bulldogs tallied 13 with eight in the 25-8 third.

Jessica Graham turned in a team-high 16 digs. Bella Santoro also reached double figures with 10 and setter Molly Mayo had 26 assists, eight digs and a team-high three aces.

Notes

- Junior Reagan Petty and freshmen Colleen Reilly and Lauren Miller made their Wofford debuts.
- Lynze Roos made her Wofford head coaching debut.

Alex Holland blasted a match-high 15 kills and hit .379, however, she was the only player that gave Memphis any trouble. The rest of the Terriers hit a combined -.079 as the Tigers swept Wofford in the first of two matches Saturday at the Benson Hospitality Invitational.

Holland was hot from the start, striking for six kills in the first set. She kept Wofford in a tight opening set and added seven kills in the third, but the sophomore's effort was not enough alone. Memphis found its way around, outhitting Wofford .226 to .068 to secure the victory.

Wofford outdueled Memphis for most of the individual superlatives. Molly Mayo set for a match-high 22 assists and classmate Bella Santoro had a match-high four blocks. On the ground, Jessica Graham went for 12 digs, which was one shy of Memphis' Mady Ruhlman's match-high 13.

Memphis took advantage on the attack and on serve, tallying 12 aces to Wofford's one. Each team had five blocks.

On the Tiger attack, it was right side hitter McKenzie Hayes who led the way with nine kills at a .400 clip. Outsides Catlin Lilly and Oluchi Agomuo had seven and six kills, respectively.

Notes

- Wofford fell to 0-2 in the all-time series with Memphis. The last time the two teams met was 2003.
- Santoro earned a career-high four blocks.
- Wofford recorded what wound up as season-lows in kills (26), assists (23), aces (1) and points (32.0).

It was a clean sweep for Wofford on Wednesday night at the Templeton Center, as the Terriers hit .351 and outblocked Presbyterian 8-2 for their first win of the season.

The Terriers were only ever troubled in the second set. Trailing 18-14, they went on an 11-4 run to close it out, earning set point on a Lauren Miller slam and winning the set off a combo block by Danni Densford and Bella Santoro.

The third set was put away early. Tied at 5, Wofford rolled off five straight points on sophomore Alex Holland's serve and never trailed again. The lead extended to as many as eight before Miller topped off a feel-good night for the Terriers.

Wofford registered a season-high eight aces, while PC had just three aces to go with six errors. The Terriers also outdueled PC in every other statistical category, recording more kills, more assists, more blocks and a higher hitting percentage.

Wofford outit Jacksonville State .307 to .116, posting 17 more kills, five more aces and outblocking the Gamecocks 9-4 on the way to a three-set sweep on Friday night at Cherokee Arena.

The Terriers were only troubled in set two. JSU called a timeout trailing 16-12 and came out of the stoppage with four straight to even things up. The Terriers fell behind for the first time, 20-19, but it didn't last long. Setter Molly Mayo found the floor with a dump set to tie the game back up at 21 and Colleen Reilly slammed a kill to get the Terriers back on top. Wofford earned set point at 24-22 and won it two points later when Allyson Zuhlke missed on her serve.

Lauren Miller blistered a career-high 12 kills, Danni Densford posted 11 on just 13 swings and setter Molly Mayo registered her third double-double, which added up to a 3-0 sweep over Alcorn State on Saturday at the Gamecock Invitational.

The win makes it four in a row for Wofford and also pushes the Terriers over .500 for the first time in 2015. Meanwhile, Alcorn State dropped its sixth straight to begin the year.

After pulling away late in the first, Wofford came back from 20-15 down to steal the second. Miller sparked the rally with a kill and then went back to serve two straight aces. Wofford tied it up at 21 when libero Jessica Graham found a hole in the Alcorn defense. A Densford solo block to put the Terriers in front and Liz Buterbaugh finished off the comeback with a kill.

It took the wind right out of Alcorn State's sail. The Terriers dominated the third set, forcing the Braves to hit -.143.

On top of her 12 slams, Miller recorded more career-highs of five aces and 17.5 points. The Terriers outhit the Braves .269 to .122 for the match, thanks in large part to Densford's .846 attack percentage, the highest by a Terrier in program history (min. 10 kills).

Mayo ran the offense with a match-high 33 assists on 41 Wofford kills. She added 10 digs for her double-double.

Notes

- Danni Densford hit .846 (11-0-13), marking the highest attack percentage by a Terrier in program history (min. 10 kills).
- It was the first all-time meeting between the two schools.

Wofford completed a 4-0 weekend with a three-set sweep of Alabama A&M to win the JSU Gamecock Invitational on Saturday at Cherokee Arena.

After beginning the day with a three-set victory over Alcorn State, the Terriers kept it going with a 25-15, 25-16, 25-21 victory over Alabama A&M. Wofford completed the tournament undefeated and earned its fifth straight win.

"It was a great tournament for us to work on staying in system and controlling our side of the court," said head coach Lynze Roos. "We stuck to the gameplan from start to finish and I saw some good offense from multiple people. It shows we can move the ball around and be less predictable."

There were impressive individual performances all around, but a few stood out in particular. Sophomore setter Molly Mayo averaged 12.15 assists per set through the four matches, quarterbacking the Terrier offense the whole way and topping it off with two double-doubles. Sophomore middle Danni Densford hit an astounding .541 for the tournament, totaling 40 kills, averaging 3.08 kills per set and also coming up with six blocks. Senior libero Jessica Graham led the Terriers on the ground, diving from 59 digs (4.65 digs per set), including a season-high 18 in just three sets against AAMU.

Notes

- Mayo was named Tournament MVP, while Densford and Graham were named to the all-tournament team.
- Wofford won five straight matches for the first time since 2012.
- Wofford improved to 2-0 all-time vs. Alabama A&M. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 2002.

Wofford opened day two of the CoFC Invitational with a three-set lost to host College of Charleston on Saturday morning at TD Arena.

The Terriers fell victim to College of Charleston's .435 attack percentage. It marked the highest by a Wofford opponent this season, while the Terriers countered at just .162 to fall in three. Melissa Morello led the Cougars with a match-high 17 kills, hitting an impressive .500 (17-3-28). Devon Rachel had 11 kills at .348.

No Terrier reached double figures in the kill column, but sophomore outside Alex Holland slammed nine at a solid percentage of .333 (9-1-24). Sophomore Danni Densford matched Holland's attack percentage with six kills.

The Cougars raced ahead 7-3 in the first and extended the lead to as many as six at 11-5. The Terriers made a set of it with an 8-2 run to get within a single point, but could never tie things up. CoFC scored six of the last eight points to take the opener.

The home team rode the first-set momentum to take the first four points of the second and go in front 9-2. It left Wofford with too big of a hill to climb, closing the deficit to three at 19-16, but getting no closer.

Wofford led through the early parts of the third set, but CoFC put together a 9-1 run to go up 19-13 and close out the match.

Wofford closed out the CoFC Invitational by dropping its second three-set match of the day, falling to 2014 Atlantic Sun Tournament champion Jacksonville to end the weekend 0-3.

The Terriers had a near chance to take a one-set lead. Wofford had set point at 24-23, 26-25 and 28-27, but could not convert on either of its three chances. JU got consecutive kills from Kelly Koop and Jizzyan Gesualdo to finish off the set, 30-28, and put the Terriers away.

Sophomore Bella Santoro tallied her fourth double-double of the season in the loss, tying a career-high with 18 digs and polishing off a team-high 15 kills (.256). Three other Terriers joined Santoro with double-figure digs, as senior libero Jessica Graham went for 18, sophomore Reagan Petty had 12 and redshirt freshman Lauren Miller had 11.

For the Dolphins, Emily Laskelle matched Santoro's 15 kills and hit .255 to lead the attack. Jessica Armstrong joined Laskelle in double figures with 11 kills (.320). Setter Jizzyan Gesualdo quarterbacked the offense with a match-high 41 assists and Mayara Prestes led all players on the ground with 26 digs.

Wofford outblocked the Dolphins 6-4 and outdug the opposition by eight, but could not do enough on the attack to put sets away. JU hit .236 as a team to outpace Wofford's mark of .204, putting down six more kills and taking 20 additional attacks.

- Santoro earned CoFC Invitational All-Tournament Team honors, totaling 37 kills, 3.70 kills/set, 29 digs and 2.90 digs/set.

After dropping the first two sets to Charleston Southern, the Terriers put on an unbelievable display of grit and determination to earn a five-set victory Friday afternoon at the Carolina Classic, hosted by South Carolina.

Wofford began the comeback by holding off CSU in a grueling third. Wofford led 24-21, only to see the Buccaneers save three straight set points and eight set points in all. Bella Santoro finally got Wofford on the board with a kill to force the fourth.

CSU looked primed to put the match away in the fourth, using an 11-3 run to go in front 20-12. However, the Terriers put on a huge rally, scoring seven straight and ending the set on an incredible 13-1 run to win it 25-21.

It brought the match to a once unthinkable fifth set, where the Terriers prevailed. Again, they came from behind to do so, erasing CSU's 6-2 lead with an 8-1 run and capping off the comeback on a dump set from sophomore Molly Mayo.

It marked the first time in over six years that Wofford came back from two sets down to win. The last time it had been done was September 4, 2009 at Gardner-Webb.

Lauren Miller led the charge, hitting .312 with a career-high 20 kills. She added 10 digs for her second career double-double.

Notes

- Wofford came back from a 2-0 deficit to win for the first time since September of 2009 at Gardner-Webb.
- Miller's 20 kills and 25.0 points finished as her season-high.
- Jessica Graham eclipsed 1,500 career digs with a match-high 27.

Wofford kicked off day two of the Carolina Classic with a four-set victory over East Carolina.

Danni Densford was the highlight of Saturday morning's victory. The Sellersburg, Indiana product hit a blistering .458 on her way to a match- and career-high 14 kills. Densford was also a threat on the block, earning a season-high six rejections. She helped the Terriers outthit ECU .175 to .085 and record a season-high 13 blocks, its most in a match since 2012.

Wofford jumped out to a 10-5 lead in each of the first three sets. All three times, ECU made a run to make things close. The first go around, the Terriers were able to hold it off, but in the second, the Pirates gained a lead at 19-18 and hit .316 to tie the match at a set apiece. In a crucial third, the Terriers were able to extend the advantage to 18-10 thanks to Densford hitting .500 in the frame and Alex Holland converting a set-high five kills (.444). ECU went on a 12-5 run to get back within a point at 23-22, but the Terriers never gave up the lead, winning the set on one of Reilly's 10 kills.

It was a runaway in the fourth. With Wofford leading 14-11, Densford slammed a kill that sparked an 11-4 run. Holland, Reilly, Bella Santoro and Lauren Miller powered home a few more along the way and setter Molly Mayo served five straight points to put the match away.

Wofford could not muster enough offense to outduel host South Carolina. The Gamecocks posted 50 kills to Wofford's 30 and outthit the Terriers .343 to .184 to earn the Carolina Classic title.

The young Terriers showed some promise, outblocking their SEC foe 9-3. Densford headed the effort with five, while Reilly and Mayo each had four. Reilly also had nine kills to lead the attack at a .318 pace. Densford and Holland were impressive with six kills apiece, hitting .357 and .333, respectively.

Darian Dozier had a match-high 13 kills (.688) for the Gamecocks. Sarah Blomgren didn't provide much less with 10 kills at .526. Koko Atoa-Williams finished with 12.

The service game was a killer in the opening set, as Wofford committed six errors to help USC pull away. Three of them came as part of a 10-5 Gamecock run. Wofford got as close as 17-14, but USC scored four of the next five to take the set.

USC's momentum carried heavily into the second. With just 16 points played, Coach Roos was already out of timeouts trailing 12-4. It did little to stop the wave of momentum, as South Carolina ended an 8-0 run ahead 17-4 to cruise to a 2-0 lead.

Wofford caught its breath and played a very competitive third set. There were 11 ties along the way before South Carolina used a 7-1 spurt to jump in front 21-15. The Terriers got three more kills out of Densford before all was said and done.

- It was the first ever meeting between the two programs.
- The Terriers ended the season 0-3 against the SEC and 1-6 all-time.

Down two sets on the road against USC Upstate, Wofford rallied to take sets three and four and force a fifth set in front of an animated crowd Tuesday night at the Hodge Center.

After going down 13-10 in the race to 15, Wofford rolled off four straight points to go up 14-13, earning its first chance at completing its second two-set comeback in a week. However, Upstate extended the set on a Callie Yeargin kill and the two sides went toe-to-toe over the next several points.

In the end, it was USC Upstate that wound up on top, scoring the final three points of the night.

Three Terriers reached double figures in the kill column, led by a season-high 16 from Bella Santoro. The Greer native also put together her team-leading sixth double-double thanks to a career performance on defense, recording 26 digs to best her previous high of 18 as a freshman. Jessica Graham tallied a season-high 30 digs. Colleen Reilly registered her first collegiate double-double with 10 kills and 12 digs, also posting seven blocks to come up three shy of a triple-double.

Despite outblocking the Spartans 13-3, Wofford could not come away with the win. USC Upstate negated the advantage by outthitting the Terriers .162 to .139, posting 12 more kills and four more aces. The Spartans had nine aces on the night, marking the most the Terriers have allowed since late August.

- Graham had a season-high 30 digs. Santoro had a career-high 26.

After enduring an 11-0 Western Carolina run and saving triple-match point in the fourth set, Wofford took an 8-2 fifth-set lead and seemed poised to win its SoCon opener.

It was not to be. WCU came back to even the tiebreak at 10, took a 13-11 lead and held off the Terriers in a scramble on the final point, Friday evening at the Ramsey Center.

The Terriers were led on the attack by sophomores Bella Santoro, Danni Densford and Alex Holland. Santoro put down a team-high 17 kills and completed a double-double with 18 digs. Densford and Holland were more efficient in their swings, hitting .306 and .278 with 14 and 15 kills, respectively. Another sophomore, Molly Mayo, completed a double-double, going for a match-high 55 assists with 13 digs.

On defense, Jessica Graham followed up a 30-dig match in Tuesday's five-setter at USC Upstate with another 30-dig performance. Colleen Reilly led the block with a match-high six rejections.

Five Catamounts reached double figures in the kill column, led by 13 apiece from Nicole Ford and Savannah Kohlhaagen. Setters Cristina Nazario and Jo-Leigh Vervelde each posted 30 assists and completed double-doubles with 13 and 18 digs, respectively. Ford matched Reilly with a match-high six blocks.

- Graham posted a second-consecutive 30-dig match.
- Mayo went for a season-high 55 assists.

Wofford fell in three sets to Chattanooga in the 2015 home opener Tuesday night at the BenJo.

The Mocs outlasted the Terriers through 13 ties and three lead changes to win the opening set. The second and third were more one-sided. Chattanooga went up 11-5 to cruise through the second and used a 7-3 run to create separation in the third.

Chattanooga maintained its undefeated start in SoCon play, while Wofford dropped its second straight to begin the conference season.

Wofford's attack generated a .325 hitting percentage in the opening set, but Chattanooga answered at .381 with 19 kills to edge it out. The score was tied at 22 before back-to-back kills by Briana Reed and Lauren Gainer gave the Mocs set point. Wofford called time and was able to save the first on a kill from sophomore Danni Densford, but Allie Davenport put it away for UTC with her fourth kill of the set.

Alex Holland led the Terrier offense with a team-high nine kills at a modest rate of .200. Five days after sweeping defending Southern Conference Tournament champion Samford on its home floor, Wofford welcomed the defending regular season champion, Furman, to Benjamin Johnson Arena.

The Terriers picked up right where they left off, rolling past Furman in three sets Wednesday evening to hand the Paladins their first loss of the conference season. Bella Santoro led the way, going for a match-high 14 kills and season-high three aces. She started the night with a kill on the very first point and ended the match by splitting two Paladins with an ace.

It was Wofford's first win over the Paladins since 2012, ending Furman's six-match series winning streak. It was also Wofford's first series win at home since 2005 and the Terriers' first sweep of Furman in the series' 48-match history, dating back to 1980.

Wofford ended the night outhitting Furman .193 to .069. A 5-1 run turned a 15-all first set into a 20-16 cushion before the Terriers went on to take the opener by five. They rode that momentum into the second, hitting .351 with 16 kills to run away with it and take a two-set lead into the intermission.

Despite attacking -.026 with only seven kills in the final set, Wofford was able to close out the sweep. Santoro, Ellie Tallman and Colleen Reilly combined for four aces and serve and three ball-handling errors.

Notes

- Wofford defeated Furman for the first time since 2012 and for the first time at home since 2005.
- It was Wofford's first three-set win in series history.

Senior libero Jessica Graham became the Wofford volleyball program's new record holder for career digs on Saturday at Mercer. She needed just four heading into the match and finished with a team-high 21, breaking Reagan Styles' record of 1,631 digs midway through the opening set.

However, the Terriers were unsuccessful in their bid for a third straight Southern Conference win. Every set came down to the wire, but Mercer was better in the stretch as Wofford fell in four. It improved the Bears to 6-0 inside Hawkins Arena.

Mercer outdueled Wofford 14-12 on the block, the most blocks this season by a Terrier opponent. Freshman middle Paige Alsten entered the match ranked No. 2 in the Southern Conference in blocks per set (1.15) and added to her average with a match-high 11 blocks. Tori Penrod registered a match-high 25 digs and the Bears also won the battle on offense, outhitting Wofford .145 to .111 and earning a 53-49 advantage in kills.

Despite the loss, Danni Densford posted great numbers. The sophomore middle recorded 10 kills at a .400 hitting percentage, also matching a season-high with six blocks. Lauren Miller had a team-high 11 kills (.259), as did Bella Santoro, but Santoro's came with 13 errors to hit -.039. Molly Mayo posted her team-leading eighth double-double, registering 42 assists and tying her career-high of 14 digs. Santoro also recorded her eighth double-double with 11 digs.

- Graham broke Wofford's career digs record with her fourth dig of the first set, surpassing Reagan Styles' (2009-12) record of 1,631 digs.
- Mayo and Santoro recorded their eighth double-doubles.

Behind Colleen Reilly's school-record-tying 12 blocks, Wofford defeated East Tennessee State University, 3-1, in Southern Conference action Saturday night at Brooks Gym.

Reilly became the first Terrier to post 12 blocks since 2011, when Arden Anderson (2009-12) went for a dozen in a four-set win at Stetson. The freshman middle is the third different Terrier to reach the mark, joining Anderson, who did it twice, and all-time career blocks leader Currie Gossett (1999-2002).

Wofford blocked ETSU a total of 18 times, the sixth-most in a single match in program history. It helped the Terriers win a crucial third set in which they gave up a 19-13 lead and were faced with double-set point down 24-22. Lauren Miller combined with Reilly on a block to put Wofford in front 28-27 and sophomores Danni Densford and Bella Santoro blocked Mariah McPartland for a momentum-shifting 30-28 set victory.

Reilly added six kills, hitting .300 on 20 swings. She left the majority of the offensive work to sophomore trio Bella Santoro, Alex Holland and Danni Densford, who all blasted a team-high 14 kills. Densford hit .379 to lead all players. Sophomore Molly Mayo set for a match-high 49 assists, 31 of them coming in the final two sets, including 19 in the third set alone.

Notes

- Colleen Reilly tied a school record with 12 blocks. It has been done on three other occasions, most recently by Arden Anderson on Sept. 10, 2011 against Stetson.
- Wofford's 18 blocks were the sixth-most in school history for a single match.
- It was Wofford's first win against ETSU since 2004, dropping the previous six series meetings, including both last season.

Lauren Miller could not be stopped. The redshirt freshman hit .842 with a match-high 16 kills, leading Wofford to a convincing 3-0 sweep over Presbyterian College Wednesday night in non-conference action at Benjamin Johnson Arena.

Miller was flawless, earning her 16 kills on 19 swings without a single error. In the second set, she was perfect, connecting on all seven of her attacks. It helped Wofford put together the only rally they needed, coming back from a 16-11 deficit to take the set before cruising through the third.

Miller's performance wound up being 15 percentage points shy of the Southern Conference record for hitting percentage in a match. The record is .857 (min. 12 kills), which has been done three times. At one point, Miller had the record, hitting .941 with 16 kills on 17 swings. Presbyterian dug her final two.

Miller led Wofford to a season-best hitting percentage of .437, the team's highest since hitting .500 in a win over NC A&T in 2011. It ranks sixth-highest in program history.

Miller wasn't the only Terrier swinging well. Bella Santoro hit a career-high .524, notching 13 kills on 21 attempts and also tying a career-high with six aces. Three of them came in the first set, serving 11 straight points to put Wofford on top 17-4.

Notes

- Lauren Miller hit a career-high .842 with 16 kills. She was 15 percentage points shy of the SoCon record (min. 12 kills) and four percentage points shy of the Wofford record (min. 10 kills).
- Bella Santoro hit a career-high .524 with 13 kills.
- Wofford posted a team attack percentage of .437, the sixth-highest in program history.

Middles Danni Densford and Colleen Reilly combined to hit .333 with 25 kills to lead Wofford in a sweep of Western Carolina, Friday night at Benjamin Johnson Arena.

Densford tallied match-highs in both kills and hitting percentage, posting 14 kills at a .346 clip. Eight of the sophomore's kills came in the very first set. Reilly powered home 11 and hit .318, adding a team-high four blocks.

Friday night's victory marked Wofford's seventh in its last nine matches, as well as its fourth straight at home. It's the program's first four-game winning streak at home since winning the last two home matches of 2005 and the first two of 2006. It's the first four-game, home winning streak in the same season since 1992.

The Terriers outit Western Carolina .208 to .088 on the night, avenging a five-set loss to the Catamounts that opened the conference season on September 25 in Cullowhee, N.C. Part of what contributed to WCU's low hitting percentage was the play of Jessica Graham, who went for a match-high 24 digs, the third-most in program history for a three-set match. Bella Santoro had 14 digs, helping the Terriers to a 63-48 advantage.

Notes

- Jessica Graham went for 24 digs, the third-most in a three-set match in school history behind herself (25) and Brittany Thompson's record of 27 (Nov. 5, 2008 at Furman).
- Wofford increased its winning streak at home to four matches, its longest that has spanned one season since 1992.
- Wofford split the season series with Western Carolina. The Catamounts lead the all-time series 22-11.

Charged by Bella Santoro's season-high 19 kills, Wofford rallied from two sets down to complete a five-set comeback over Mercer on Homecoming Saturday at Benjamin Johnson Arena.

The win makes it four straight for Wofford, who improve to 8-2 in the month of October, including a perfect 5-0 at home. The victory also marked the second time this season the Terriers have come back from two sets down to win, last doing so against Charleston Southern on September 18.

The Terriers struggled to hit .136 and .053 in the first two sets, respectively. Mercer hit .342 to cruise through the first and held off a late Wofford run in the second set to take a 2-0 lead.

Wofford came out of the locker room a new team. Santoro put down seven kills and Colleen Reilly added six to push the Terriers through the third. The fourth was owned by Danni Densford, who connected on all seven of her swings to help Wofford hit .452, forcing a fifth set.

The Terriers held a 12-11 lead in the tiebreak before scoring the final three points to take the match. Alex Holland put down the last of her 15 kills before Santoro and Reilly combined to block Mercer's Monica Johnson for match point. Reilly finished it off with her 16th kill.

Wofford fell in a hard-fought, four-set decision at Samford Friday night inside the Pete Hanna Center. The loss snapped Wofford's four-match winning streak. The Terriers entered having won eight of their last 10.

Samford grabbed momentum by coming back to win the opening set. With the Terriers leading 22-19, Taylor Anderton put down a kill that began a 4-0 spurt to put the Bulldogs back in front, 23-22. Wofford rallied to earn set point ahead 25-24, but could not finish it off. Boesing saved the set with a kill and Samford scored three straight points to take the set, 27-25.

Samford came back again to win the second after trailing 12-8 to put Wofford in a two-set hole. The Terriers made a match of it by winning the third, 25-21, however, Samford made sure a comeback was not in order. The Bulldogs jumped all over the beginning of set four, going in front 5-1 with the help of back-to-back aces by Alana Schouten. Wofford wasn't able to recover, watching the deficit grow to as many as nine points. The Terriers made a set of it late by getting within three at 21-18, but Samford polished off the victory to earn a season series split.

Three Terriers reached double figures in the kill column. Lauren Miller was the leader of the pack, slamming a team-high 12 and hitting .526. Bella Santoro matched Miller's 12 kills (.150) and completed her team-leading 11th double-double with 12 digs. Danni Densford hit .318 with 10 kills. Jessica Graham matched Santoro with a team-high 12 digs.

- Santoro recorded her 11th double-double of the season.
- Wofford and Samford split the season series.

The sixth-seeded Wofford Terriers suffered their third four-set loss of the season to third-seeded UNCG (25-15, 20-25, 21-25, 13-25), exiting the 2015 Southern Conference Tournament in the quarterfinals, Saturday night at the Ramsey Center.

Wofford won the first set handily, but could not find a way to get over the hump. After UNCG tied the match by winning the second set, Wofford led the third 11-5 and seemed to be on its way to retaking the lead.

The Spartans rallied. They scored the next five points and closed a 14-3 run with a 19-14 lead. Wofford never led at any point in any set the rest of the match, dropping the third set before falling in four.

Wofford ends the 2015 season with a 16-18 overall record. The Terriers posted their most wins since 2009 and also went 7-9 in conference play to finish in sixth place, the highest conference finish in their 18 years as members of the Southern Conference.

Sophomore outside Alex Holland led the Terriers on the attack with 12 kills in Saturday night's quarterfinal. Sophomore middle Danni Densford joined her in double figures with 10.

Another sophomore, setter Molly Mayo, notched her 12th double-double with 39 assists and 12 digs. In doing so, she broke the program record for single-season assists, finishing the year with 1,334 to surpass Rhea DeJesus' previous record of 1,332 from 2004.

Senior libero Jessica Graham, playing in what was her final contest as a Terrier, posted a match-high 23 digs. Graham, who broke the program record for career digs back on October 10, finishes her career with 1,921 digs. She went for 605 this season, the most of her collegiate career.

Freshman middle Colleen Reilly posted a match-high five blocks to go with eight kills. Reilly finishes her stellar rookie campaign with 123 total blocks, tying for the third-most in school history with all-time career blocks leader Currie Gossett (1999-02).

For UNCG, Ashley Muench earned a match-high 15 kills. Julia Westebur had 12 and Jessica Brezwyn had 11. The Spartans outthit Wofford .173 to .162 despite a first set in which Wofford hit .250 and the Spartans hit -.048. Both teams finished with eight blocks and 73 digs.

The Spartans advance to Sunday's semifinals to play No. 2 seed Furman.

- Wofford concluded the 2015 season 16-18, posting its most wins since going 18-14 in 2009.
- Molly Mayo set the new program record for single-season assists (1,334). She also owns the No. 3 spot with 1,272 assists as a freshman.

The Southern Conference, which is in its 96th season of intercollegiate competition in 2016-17, is a national leader in emphasizing the development of the student-athlete and in helping to build lifelong leaders and role models.

The Southern Conference has been on the forefront of innovation and originality in developing creative solutions to address issues facing intercollegiate athletics. From establishing the first postseason college basketball tournament (1921), to tackling the issue of freshman eligibility (1922), to developing women's championships (1984), to becoming the first conference to install the 3-point goal in basketball (1980), the Southern Conference has been a pioneer.

The Southern Conference is the nation's fifth-oldest NCAA Division I collegiate athletic association. Only the Big Ten (1896), the Missouri Valley (1907), the Pac-12 (1915) and the Southwestern Athletic (1920) conferences are older in terms of origination.

Academic excellence has been a major part of the Southern Conference's tradition. Hundreds of Southern Conference student-athletes have been recognized on CoSIDA Academic All-America and all-district teams. A total of 20 Rhodes Scholarship winners have been selected from conference institutions, most recently in 2012-13, when former Wofford volleyball player Rachel Woodlee earned the prestigious award.

The conference currently consists of 10 members in six states throughout the Southeast and sponsors 21 varsity sports and championships that produce participants for NCAA Division I Championships. The league added rifle, becoming just the second Division I conference to sponsor the sport, in 2016-17.

The Southern Conference offices are located in the historic Beaumont Mill in Spartanburg, S.C. A textile mill that was in operation from 1880 until 1999, Beaumont Mill was renovated in 2004 and today offers the league first-class meeting areas and offices as well as a spacious library for storage of the conference's historical documents.

MEMBERSHIP HISTORY

On Feb. 25, 1921, representatives from 14 of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association's (SIAA) 30 members met at Atlanta's Piedmont Hotel to establish the Southern Intercollegiate Conference. On hand at the inaugural meeting were officials from Alabama, Alabama Polytechnic Institute (Auburn), Clemson, Georgia, Georgia School of Technology (Georgia Tech), Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi A&M (Mississippi State), North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Polytechnic Institute (Virginia Tech) and Washington & Lee.

Dr. S.V. Sanford of Georgia was chosen as acting chairman and N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee was named secretary. The decision to form a new athletic conference was motivated by the desire to have a workable number of conference games for each league member. With 30 schools in the SIAA by the early 1920s, it was impossible to play every school at least once during the regular season and many schools went several years between playing some conference members. In addition, in 1920, the SIAA voted down proposed rules that an athlete must be in a college a year before playing on its teams and refused to abolish a rule permitting athletes to play summer baseball for money.

Play began in the fall of 1921, and a year later, six more schools joined the fledgling league, including Tulane (which had attended the inaugural meeting but had elected not to join), Florida, Louisiana (LSU), Mississippi, South Carolina and Vanderbilt. VMI joined in 1925 and Duke was added in 1929.

By the 1930s, membership in the Southern Conference had reached 23 schools. C.P. "Sally" Miles of Virginia Tech, president of the Southern Conference, called the annual league meeting to order on Dec. 9, 1932, at the Farragut Hotel in Knoxville, Tenn. Georgia's Dr. Sanford announced that 13 institutions west and south of the Appalachian Mountains were reorganizing as the Southeastern Conference. Members of the new league included Alabama, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Florida, Georgia, Georgia School of Technology, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Mississippi A&M, University of the South, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

According to the minutes of the meeting, Dr. Sanford stated that the division was made along geographical lines. Florida's Dr. J.J. Tigert, acting as spokesman for the withdrawing group, regretted the move but believed it was necessary as the Southern Conference had grown too large. The resignations were accepted and the withdrawing schools formed the new league, which began play in 1933.

The Southern Conference continued with membership of 10 institutions, including Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina, Virginia, VMI, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

The second major shift occurred some 20 years later. By 1952, the Southern Conference included 17 colleges and universities. Another split occurred when seven schools – Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest – departed to form the Atlantic Coast Conference, which began play in 1953. The revamped Southern Conference included members The Citadel, Davidson, Furman, George Washington, Richmond, VMI, Virginia Tech, Washington & Lee, West Virginia and William & Mary.

A third major shift occurred in 2012-13, when five members announced their departures and three schools were added. College of Charleston announced its decision to leave for the Colonial Athletic Association following the 2012-13 season, while Appalachian State (Sun Belt), Davidson (Atlantic 10), Elon (Colonial) and Georgia Southern (Sun Belt) announced they would depart following the 2013-14 campaign. At the Southern Conference's 2013 spring meetings in Hilton Head Island, S.C., the league officially extended invitations to former members ETSU and VMI, as well as Mercer, to join the league for the 2014-15 academic year.

Today, the league continues to thrive with a membership that includes 10 institutions and a footprint that spans six states: Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. Current league members are The Citadel, ETSU, Furman, Mercer, UNCg, Samford, Chattanooga, VMI, Western Carolina and Wofford.

CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

The first Southern Conference Championship held after the formation of the league was the basketball tournament in Atlanta in 1922. North Carolina won the tournament to become the first recognized league champion in any sport. The Southern Conference tournament remains the oldest of its kind in college basketball. The most recent SoCon addition, rifle, will crown its first champion in March 2017.

Commissioner Germann spearheaded the Southern Conference's expansion to include women's athletics during the 1983-84 season. That year, league women's championships were held in volleyball, basketball and tennis. Cross country joined the mix in 1985, outdoor track and field was added in 1987 and indoor and track and field followed in 1988. Most recently, the conference instituted golf and softball championships in the spring of 1994 and added soccer in the fall of 1994.

The Southern Conference declares champions in 11 men's sports – football, soccer, cross country, basketball, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, wrestling, baseball, lacrosse, tennis and golf – and nine women's sports – soccer, volleyball, cross country, basketball, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, tennis, golf and softball. Rifle is a mixed sport.

Wofford won the 2003, 2007, 2010 and 2012 SoCon Football Championships.

DR. NAYEF SAMHAT

PRESIDENT

The Wofford College Board of Trustees elected Dr. Nayef H. Samhat as president of the college on Tuesday, May 14, 2013. He began his duties at Wofford on July 1, 2013.

Samhat had served as provost and professor of political science and international studies at Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio, since 2009.

"We conducted a thorough, national search for the 11th president of Wofford College," said J. Harold Chandler (Class of 1971), chair of the Wofford Board of Trustees. "Our search committee was led by an able and accomplished individual and its 12 members have done their job in a thoughtful and comprehensive manner. The board of trustees, led by its Human Resources Committee, has completed its review and have voted to accept the mutual recommendation of the Search Committee and the Human Resources Committee in the naming of Dr. Nayef H. Samhat as the next president of Wofford College. We are honored that Dr. Samhat has accepted our call and we are excited and ready to begin our important work together."

Samhat held several positions at Centre College in Danville, Ky., from 1996 to 2009, including associate dean of the college, the Frank B. and Virginia Hower Associate Professor of Government and International Studies, chair of the Division of Social Studies, and the National Endowment for the Humanities Associate coordinator of the Environmental Field Experience Program and an instructor in the Department of Political Science at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., from 1995 to 1996.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in international economics from The George Washington University in Washington, D.C., in 1983, Samhat received his master of international affairs degree from Columbia University in New York City. He received his Ph.D. in political science from Northwestern University, where he also received a minor in comparative political economy.

While at Kenyon, Samhat has overseen a number of major grants, including two from the Mellon Foundation: a Critical Languages and Innovative Pedagogy grant to support post-doctoral teaching fellowships for Russian and Arabic languages, and a grant for the Center for Innovative Pedagogy and The Essentials: Renewing General Education within the Curriculum to enhance the endowment for a previously Mellon-funded Teacher Teaching Teachers grant.

At the end of the last academic year, there were approximately 2,000 four-year colleges in the United States. Only 262 of them have the right to induct their graduates into Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's most prestigious liberal arts honor society. There are five independent Phi Beta Kappa colleges and universities in the Carolinas: Wofford, Davidson, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest.

Founded at the College of William and Mary in December 1776, Phi Beta Kappa was the first of the Greek letter fraternities and adopted such rituals as the badge, the secret oath, and the special handclasp from the various secret societies of the day.

Phi Beta Kappa, however, was also devoted to the principles of "friendship, morality, and literature (or learning)," and these characteristics gradually attained the greatest emphasis. John Quincy Adams, Edward Everett and Joseph Story, members of the Harvard chapter, are credited with making the fraternity a public literary and honor society for undergraduates in the 1830's. Women were first admitted to Phi Beta Kappa in 1875 at the University of Vermont.

Wofford received its chapter at the 1940 triennial meeting, bringing to fruition more than ten years of work by three Phi Beta Kappa members who were then serving on the faculty: President Henry Nelson Snyder, Dr. David Duncan Wallace, class of 1894, and Dr. John West Harris '16, a brash and brilliant young English professor not afraid to campaign vigorously in the conviction that his alma mater deserved membership. (Dr. Harris later founded the National Beta Club, which still has its headquarters in Spartanburg).

With about 350,000 members across the country, Phi Beta Kappa today sponsors numerous programs to encourage scholarship and learning, including the Phi Beta Kappa Book Awards and the visiting scholar, academic fellowship and leadership programs.

For these reasons, Phi Beta Kappa Day at Wofford has institutional significance, as well as being especially memorable for the new members, each of whom will receive the traditional Phi Beta Kappa watch key or pin.

Amanda Liguori '14 (above) is the latest member of the volleyball team inducted into Phi Beta Kappa.

THE CAROLINA PANTHERS

The Carolina Panthers have held training camp at Wofford since their inaugural season in 1995 and it will be held on campus until at least 2019. The camp provides Wofford tremendous national exposure and visibility. Media members that visit Wofford during the camp include ESPN, Fox Sports, NFL Network, USA Today and Sports Illustrated. Local print and television media from markets including Columbia, Charlotte, Raleigh/Durham/Chapel Hill, Asheville and Greensboro/Winston-Salem are on campus on a daily basis.

According to SI.com's Tim Layden, "as I like to think of it: Training Camp Heaven. Wofford is 70 miles west of Charlotte on I-85, and presents all the reasons why there is something special about taking the team on the road for camp. Three pristine, Bermuda-grass fields with a stand of tall pines on two sides and a steep hillside -- where fans sit and watch -- on another. Fans, many of them young boys and girls, lined up along the fence, getting autographs after practice. It's a scene straight out of football's past."

THE TERRIER SCULPTURE

A sculpture of a Terrier was unveiled on March 25, 2008 outside of the Student Life Building as a gift to Wofford College from the Class of 1956. The following is the text of an address given by Talmage Boyd Skinner, Jr., 1956, Chaplain Emeritus of Wofford College on the dedication.

The mascot of a college should, in large measure, represent the character of the place. In this Palmetto State, we are surrounded by a bevy of mascots. There are Gamecocks and Tigers, Bulldogs and a Rooster named Chanticleer, Indians, Paladins, Cougars, Valkyries, and one school has a sock for an ensign. There are Trojans, Pioneers, and Spartans, and various Cats and feathered creatures. In all the land, only two other schools are Terriers. Some will laugh when we affirm that we are the only true Terriers. Some chuckle when we are audacious enough to claim to be unique and even superior in so many aspects of being a college. The most arrogant of us will admit that there are many good colleges. We have even tried to copy some. I have always been a bit uncomfortable when we talk of another school being a -- "flagship" that we need to emulate. Hey! We ARE the flagship! Forgive the pride of some old guys who have loved this little school for over half a century. Yes, we did not come to Wofford just to purchase an education; we joined Wofford. We were adopted into the family with a bond that cannot be broken. Many colleges claim to be family. We truly are.

Ours is a bond of shared experience hammered out on the playing fields against foes our size and those with more students than we have living alumni. It does not stop with athletics. The term "student athlete" has authenticity at Wofford. The bond is from a shared academic experience that is not content just to pass on so-called facts, but prepares students to think and to continue to grow. The "proof of the pudding" is in the doctors, lawyers, college presidents and professors, teachers, coaches, leaders in business and service - even in the ministry of the Church. A bond is created in the experience of the arts - the theater program, choral music, strings. One thing we lack - a band - not just the band class that plays well once or twice a year, but a BAND for spirit and musical experience. A bond is created through service programs and the physical arts witnessed by so many exhibitions on campus. Not the least is a religious life program that is open and tolerant, that walks with students seeking answers and helps them first learn to ask questions.

We, the Class of 1956 present this Terrier to our college as a symbol of Wofford Spirit in all aspects of this place like no other. We want to add to the tradition of this sacred ground. We want to remind the present Wofford that there is a past on which she stands and remind all of us that it all will be forgotten if we do not have a vision for the future. Our goal should be deeper than the usual quest for reputation, wealth, and prestige. Dr. Dunlap has always called Wofford a "kingdom of the just." May that ever be our watchword. It may be a simple, unsophisticated phrase, but we are called not to be powerful, but good. As the prophet Micah said, "What does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God."

The Class of 1956 proudly and humbly presents this physical representation of the Spirit of Wofford College and all those members of our family who ever lived or presently live on the "City's Northern Border," and all who are yet to dwell in the shadow of the Twin Towers.
